THE MUSIC OF MY LIFE

BLAKE SHELTON

THE 'NEON LIGHT'
SINGER SHARES HIS MUSICAL MILESTONES
By DANIELLE ANDERSON

→ First concert you ever saw?

"Sawyer Brown and a guy named B. B. Watson came to Ada, Okla., and played the Kerr Dome. I just couldn't believe it. I mean, it was the first time I ever saw somebody in person that I've seen on TV. It was just so overwhelming. Mark Miller even had a broken leg. I remember he came out, and he had to sit on a stool the whole time to perform. It was probably the worst show of his life because he couldn't dance, but to me it was just so cool."

First album you bought with your own money?

"It was a single cassette, and I think it was 'The Race Is On' by Sawyer Brown. It might've been 'Hillbilly Rock' by Marty Stuart. One of those two."
